This special worship service is a wonderful time of sharing stories of God’s faithfulness (in both good times and in difficult) and encouraging one another. It’s a very special time of praising the Lord together as a church family. There will be an opportunity to briefly share some words of thanksgiving – perhaps a testimony, a meaningful Scripture passage or something else. And in addition to the special time of sharing we’ll be joyfully lifting our voices in hymns of praise, receiving a special offering and enjoying a fabulous (potluck style) meal before the service. Plan to be a part of the special time of praise together!

Thank you

To the Arthur Ev Free Ladies: Thank you, gals and guys, for such a nice Pre-Thanksgiving dinner. It was delicious! Thank you to your church for the Fourth of July bottle of water, which is always a welcome gift. Your outreach mission is to be commended! Once again, please accept my thankfulness to you all and I will keep you in my prayers.

Your Presbyterian Sister, Jean Wilcke

OCC Corner

Praise the Lord – 83 shoe boxes were collected and taken to Storm Lake! Thank you to all who packed shoe boxes, those who donated items to put in the shoeboxes, and the anonymous donor who paid for all the shipping for all the boxes. The Lord bless all of you. Please, please pray for the shoeboxes as they are collected, sorted, and sent around the world. Pray for volunteers at the 4500+ drop-off locations this week that they might have ministry opportunities arise as shoe boxes are left with them. This year, OCC will pack their 200 millionth shoe box and it will be delivered to a child somewhere in the world. What an awesome milestone! Praise the Lord!
Blessings to you all - Pam Porter
